

MISSION BRIEFING: Mission Log

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

STUDENT INSTRUCTIONS: Record your observations by finding the clue that correctly matches each description. Write down the clues as you proceed through the mission.

Question	Answer
A. In the Enemy Agents challenge, you meet up with six different infectious agents. Name them. B. Which type of infectious agent are a tapeworm, a roundworm, and a hookworm?	A. B.
A. In the Koch's Concepts challenge, why is it necessary to wash the orange before infecting it with the fungus? B. Who worked out the four-step procedure scientists use to determine if a specific germ causes a particular disease?	A. B.
A. In the Germ Blaster challenge, which types of infectious agents can be killed by antibiotics? B. Which pathogen has no treatment?	A. B.
A. In the Infect-O-Rama challenge, what are the ways in which viruses can be spread? B. Which two modes of transmission are common to five of the infectious agents?	A. B.
A. In the Body Defender challenge, what two body parts make up the first line of defense against pathogens? B. What is the name of the proteins made by B cells that can bind (connect) to a specific pathogen?	A. B.